

NOTICE TO HOMEOWNER

Assumption of HUD/FHA Insured Mortgages
Release of Personal Liability

You are legally obligated to make monthly payments required by your mortgage (deed of trust) and promissory note.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has acted to keep investors and noncredit worthy purchasers from acquiring one-to-four family residential properties covered by certain FHA-insured mortgage. There are minor exceptions to the restriction on investors: loans to public agencies and some non-organizations, Indian tribes or service persons; and loans under special mortgage insurance programs for property sold by HUD, rehabilitation loans or refinancing of insured mortgage. Your lender can advise you if you are included in one of these exceptions.

HUD will therefore direct the lender to accelerate the FHA-insured mortgage loan if all or part of the property is sold or transferred to a purchaser or recipient (1) who will not occupy the property as his or her principal residence, or (2) who does occupy the property but whose credit has not been approved in accordance with HUD requirements. This policy will apply except for certain sales or transfers where acceleration is prohibited by law.

When a loan is accelerated, the entire balance is declared "immediately due and payable." Since HUD will not approve the sale of the property covered by this mortgage to an investor or to a person whose credit has not been approved, you, the original homeowner, would remain liable for the mortgage debt even though the title to the property might have been transferred to the new buyer.

Even if you sell your home by letting an approved purchaser (that is, a creditworthy owner-occupant) assume your mortgage, you are still liable for the mortgage debt unless you obtain a release of liability from your mortgage lender. FHA-approved lenders have been instructed by HUD to prepare such a release when an original homeowner sells his or her property to a creditworthy purchaser who executes an agreement to assume and pay the mortgage debt and thereby agrees to become the substitute mortgagor. The release is contained in Form HUD-92210-a, ("Approved of Purchaser and Release of Seller"). You should ask for it if the mortgage lender does not provide it to you automatically when you sell your home to a creditworthy owner-occupant purchaser who executes an agreement to assume personal liability for the debt. When this form is executed, you are no longer liable for the mortgage debt.

You must sign and date this disclosure as indicated, return one copy to your lender as proof of notification and keep one copy for your records.
